WELCOME TO BARNARD CASTLE

Our new delightful Castle Croft development of 2, 3, & 4 bedroom homes, is located in picturesque Teesdale, in the small village of Startforth situated just a short distance south-west of Barnard Castle, on the opposite side of the River Tees.

The nearby historic market town of Barnard Castle, takes its name from the castle which it grew around and dates back to the 12th century. The remains of the castle, now a Grade 1 listed building, overlook the River Tees which today is a popular destination for canoeists and anglers.

In the centre of the town stands an octagonal building, the Market Cross known locally as, the 'Butter Market', built by Thomas Breaks and given to the town in 1747. Legend has it that the two bullet holes in the weather vane are the result of a shooting competition between a volunteer soldier and a local gamekeeper in 1804!

Tourism is important to the local economy with the town incorporating a number of antique shops and an antique centre which attracts buyers from all around the world. There are several holiday parks located nearby including a Camping and Caravanning Club site. Barnard Castle's largest single employer is GlaxoSmithKline which has a large pharmaceutical manufacturing plant on the outskirts of the town, employing 1000 people.

A GREAT PLACE TO LIVE

Day to day provisions can be purchased from the local Morrisons supermarket or from the many independent traders in the town. There's also the monthly Farmers' Market, held on 'the cobbles' in the Market Place. On top of that the town boasts a number of excellent restaurants, tea shops, cafés and pubs, serving good quality home-made food.

On the outskirts of Barnard Castle is The Bowes Museum, an impressive and charming French-style château, built in the late 19th century by John Bowes, and surrounded by beautiful gardens and parkland. The museum houses a collection of European fine and decorative arts and is regarded as one of the most significant museums outside London.

The area is well served with quality schools, with seven primary schools and three high schools within 5 miles of the development.
